

WORLD FOOD REGULATION REVIEW

ISSN: 0963-4894 (Print)
1752-7449 (Online)

Vol. 24, Number 10

March 2015

CONTENTS

World Food Regulation Review

AROUND THE WORLD

AUSTRALIA/ NEW ZEALAND: Hepatitis A Linked to Frozen Berries . . . . .	3
CANADA: Royal Assent of Agricultural Growth Act . . . . .	3
CANADA: Ministerial Advisory Committee on Atlantic Salmon Launched . . . . .	4
CANADA: Governments Invest in On-Farm Food Safety Projects . . . . .	5
EUROPEAN UNION: Shaping the Future of Food Safety, Together – Milan, 14-16 October 2015 . . . . .	5
EUROPEAN UNION: Opening EFSA’s “Treasure Trove” of Food Safety Data . . . . .	5
EUROPEAN UNION: Pesticides: Simplified Procedure for Exchange of Active Substance Documents . . . . .	6
EUROPEAN UNION: Pesticides: Stakeholders Debate Epidemiological Studies . . . . .	6
EUROPEAN UNION: Foods of Non-animal Origin: What are the Risks? . . . . .	7
EUROPEAN UNION: Over 97% of Foods in EU Contain Pesticide Residues Within Legal Limits . . . . .	8
EUROPEAN UNION: Dietary Reference Values: Vitamin A Advice Published . . . . .	8
FRANCE: ANSES Presents its Work Priorities for 2015 . . . . .	9
GERMANY: Adulterated Foods Investigated: Modern Analytical Methods Verify that Foods are Genuine . . . . .	10
GERMANY: Health is Indivisible: Humans, Animals and Environment are the Focus of Food Safety . . . . .	11
GERMANY: BfR Study on Risk Perception . . . . .	11
GERMANY: AnimalTestInfo Database: German Initiative for More Transparency in Animal Experiments . . . . .	12
GERMANY: Improvements Required in Poultry Slaughter Hygiene . . . . .	12
GERMANY: Germans Spend 7.91 Billion Euro on Organic Food, Beverages . . . . .	14
IRELAND: Raw Milk Found to Contain Harmful Bacteria . . . . .	14
NETHERLANDS: No Health Risks Associated with Foods and Food Supplements Containing Krill and Microalgae Oils . . . . .	15
NETHERLANDS: Lower Salt Content in Some Foods, but Similar Saturated Fat Content . . . . .	15
NETHERLANDS: Entrepreneur Suspected of Illegal Possession and Administration of Veterinary Medicines . . . . .	15

NEW ZEALAND: Criminal Threat “Being Taken Seriously” . . . . .	16
NEW ZEALAND: Improvements to Food Traceability on the Agenda . . . . .	16
NEW ZEALAND: Restrictions on Feeding Meat and Food Waste to Pigs . . . . .	17
SINGAPORE: AVA to Work with Farmers Affected by Plankton Bloom Fish Deaths . . . . .	17
SINGAPORE: Hoax Email on Ciguatoxins in Locally Farmed Fishes . . . . .	18
UNITED KINGDOM: Campylobacter Survey: Cumulative Results from the First Nine Months . . . . .	18
UNITED KINGDOM: Workshop on Herbs and Spices . . . . .	19
UNITED STATES: US/UK Partner for Animal Disease Prevention Research . . . . .	20
UNITED STATES: Funding Available for Specialty Crop and Organic Agriculture Research and Extension Programs . . . . .	20
UNITED STATES: Kids Eating More Healthy Food at School, Throwing Less Food Away . . . . .	21

ANTIMICROBIALS

New Science-based Guidance for Risk Analysis in AMR / EU: Pathogens Show “Significant Levels of Resistance” to Common Antimicrobials / Germany: Prevalence of Resistance in Animal Pathogenic Bacteria . . . . .	22
--	----

PUBLICATION

Advances in Food and Beverage Labelling: Information and Regulations . . . . .	24
--	----

INTERNATIONAL

International Feed Regulators Meeting Encourages Feed Industry Involvement in Codex Work / Codex: Progress on Standards for Fats and Oils / Crunching Genomes to Boost Animal Health / OIE and the US CDC Reinforce Their Collaboration / Food Standards and Food Safety Issues in Africa / “Spirit of Compromise” on Processed Cheese Standard / WHO Calls on Countries to Reduce Sugar Intake Among Adults and Children / World Health Day 2015: Food Safety / Six Languages for ‘Veterinary Drug Residue in Food’ Online Database / New Fish Drying Technology Boosts Livelihoods in Ivorian Towns / 21st Conference of the OIE Regional Commission for Africa . . . . .	26
---	----