

WORLD FOOD REGULATION REVIEW

Vol. 13, number 12

May 2004

Incorporating International Food Safety News

CONTENTS

World Food Regulation Review

AROUND THE WORLD

CANADA: Shellfish Exports to the EU	3
CANADA: Depopulation of Poultry in Fraser Valley	3
CHINA: Agreement with US.	3
EUROPEAN UNION: Scientific Basis for Labelling	3
EUROPEAN UNION: EFSA Approves Food Sales Rights for Accession States	4
EUROPEAN UNION: Regulations on Tin in Food .	5
EUROPEAN UNION: New Animal Movement System Adopted	5
EUROPEAN UNION: Corrigenda to Recent Regulations	6
NEW ZEALAND: Review of Imported Food & Food Related Products	6
SWITZERLAND/EU: Plant Passports Implemented.	7
UNITED KINGDOM: Agency Response to Soil Association Lasalocid Report	7
UNITED KINGDOM: Antimicrobial Resistance Coordination Group Work Published	7
UNITED STATES: FDA Publishes FAQ on Bird Flu and Eggs.	8
UNITED STATES: Animal Feed Safety System . .	8
UNITED STATES: Food Safety Summit Attendance Up 37 Percent	8
UNITED STATES: Proposals Sought For New Technologies For Small Firms	8
UNITED STATES: US Groups Oppose Shrimp Anti-Dumping Case	9
UNITED STATES: Amendments to Wheat Import Regulations Proposed	9

UNITED STATES: 'Marked Decline in Foodborne Illness'	8
UNITED STATES: Illegal Use of Hormone Implants In Veal Calves	10

SPECIAL REPORT

European Union: Revised definition for meat in meat products – Impact Assessment for Businesses (UK Example).	11
---	----

BIOTECHNOLOGY

SPECIAL REPORT

Assessing Risks from Food Imports – Codex Developments	16
--	----

INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS

International Food Safety News

Editorial	21
Cryptosporidium – a Multi-faceted Hazard for Holiday-makers and Hotel Owners	22
News.	24
Salmonella	27
More Dutch Snippets	28
Acrylamide	30
Listeria monocytogenes: how can a relatively innocuous foodborne pathogen induce a potentially fatal disease?	31

DIARY