

WORLD FOOD REGULATION REVIEW

Vol. 14, number 5

October 2004

Incorporating International Food Safety News

CONTENTS

World Food Regulation Review

AROUND THE WORLD

AUSTRALIA/NEW ZEALAND: Food Safety Week to Protect “Tiny Tummies and Sensitive Systems”	3
BELGIUM: No DDT Noted in Food	3
BELGIUM: Western Corn Rootworm Discovered	3
CANADA: New Measures to Accelerate BSE Testing Progress	4
EUROPEAN UNION: Scientific and Technical Documents on the Web	4
EUROPEAN UNION: EFSA Advises on the Safety of Paraben Usage in Food	4
EUROPEAN UNION: Opinion on the Use of Pullulan PI-20 as a New Food Additive.	5
IRELAND: Minister Launches Egg Labeling Campaign	5
UNITED KINGDOM: Guidance to Control Johne’s Disease in Dairy Herds	6
UNITED KINGDOM: Hygiene Improves with Licensing of Butchers’ Shops	6
UNITED KINGDOM: Shoppers Misled by Minced Meat Labeling	6
UNITED KINGDOM: Malachite Green Survey Published	7
UNITED KINGDOM: Pesticide Residues Committee 2003 Annual Report	7
UNITED KINGDOM: FSA Campaign to Reduce Salt Levels.	8
UNITED STATES: FDA Announces Qualified Health Claims for Omega-3 Fatty Acids	9
UNITED STATES: FDA Proposes Further Action to Improve Farm-to-Table Shell Egg Safety	9
UNITED STATES: Organisations Sign Agreement With NASDA to Secure US Food Supplies	10

UNITED STATES: USDA Opens Two New Offices in Africa	10
UNITED STATES: ‘Improper’ Patagonian Toothfish Shipments Turned Away	11
UNITED STATES: Specialty Crop Competitiveness Act a ‘Down Payment on Future Action’	11

BIOTECHNOLOGY	12
--------------------------------	-----------

SPECIAL REPORT
Traceability – an Enforcement Perspective	14

SPECIAL REPORT
Food Grade Lubricants Ease Contamination Concerns for Meat Processors.	17

INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS	19
---	-----------

FORTHCOMING EVENTS	20
-------------------------------------	-----------

International Food Safety News

Editorial	21
Food Safety in the Aftermath of Hurricanes	22
Enterobacter sakazakii	23
News.	24
Biogenic Amines	26
Dutch Snippets	28
E. coli & Salmonella	29

DIARY	32
------------------------	-----------